Our 57" x 48" x 44" bulk containers, designed with extended-length to accommodate long, hard-to-fit parts, are a cost-saving solution. They will fit a 3' x 4' item with room to spare for dunnage or several rows of smaller items. This size is an excellent choice for items that are just slightly too large for the standard 45" x 48" footprint. These extended-length collapsible bulk containers are stackable, and their versatility makes them ideal for a wide range of shipping and storing applications. With a 1.8:1 nesting ratio, they maximize storage space and cut return shipping costs, helping you manage your budget more effectively.
